

PLEASE don't allow use of cell phones on planes. They're everywhere else today, and we need SOME place where we can be free of someone's inane conversation. I can't imagine being trapped on a plane for two hours next to a phonaholic. We've been able to get along without them to this point, let's continue that. Please!! Thank you.